Generations Federal Credit Union Names Chief Operating Officer and VP of Member Engagement

San Antonio – September 10, 2018 – Generations Federal Credit Union (GFCU) is pleased to announce the promotions of Chief Operating Officer Ken Raymie, and Vice President of Member Engagement Letty Gonzales.

As Chief Operating Officer, Raymie provides executive oversight of Retail, Lending, Commercial, Risk Management and Marketing divisions. He most recently served as GFCU Chief Risk Officer. He brings over 20 years of banking experience to GFCU, including roles as Executive Vice President/Commercial Banking and Executive Vice President/Chief Revenue Officer at other financial institutions. A graduate of SA Chamber of Commerce Leadership SA Class 33, and North SA Chamber of Commerce Leadership Lab, Raymie was named to the SA Business Journal “40 Under 40” in 2005. He sits on the Board of Directors of the North SA Chamber of Commerce and recently served on the boards of the SA Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and SAMMinistries. He holds a BA in Economics from Boston University and an MBA from Northeastern University.

Letty Gonzales leads GFCU’s Sales and Service initiatives, including member experience and engagement, as well as community involvement. She previously held the position of GFCU Commercial Business Development Officer. Her 20 years of experience includes Retail, Private and Commercial Banking. Gonzales is a graduate of the SA Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Alexander Briseño Leadership Development Program, and she serves on the Northside ISD Education Improvement Council, the Mayor’s Commission on the Status of Women, and the Board of Boysville, Inc. She is very active in her community and in her church.

“I am excited for Ken and Letty to take on these new roles,” said Steve Schipull, GFCU President and Chief Executive Officer. “They have contributed significantly to the credit union’s culture and success over the past several years. I look forward to their continued positive impact on our organization.”
